

SHORT USER MANUAL

Cloning The Repository

1. Open BitBucket and go under the fall2023team6 folder.
2. Select source or commits and select “Clone” towards the top right of the screen and copy the URL.
3. Open IntelliJ and click Get from VCS.
4. Paste the copied URL and select clone.

Running The Program

1. Select “chocAnSystem” then scroll until you see “TerminalGUI.java”.
2. Open TerminalGUI.java” and run it.
3. A separate window should pop up that says, “Welcome to the Chocoholics Software!” with options below to select which terminal you would like to enter as well as a play/pause button for the background music.
4. Select your designated terminal and enter 9-digit code it asks you to enter.
 - a. Selected “Manager Terminal” and entered 9-digit code.
 - i. A list will pop up allowing you to choose between Member Report, Provider Report, Manager Report, and View Main Menu
 1. Once you select which report you would like, a small pop-up window will tell you that the designated report was generated.
 2. Select “Main Menu” to return to the main menu.
 - b. Selected “Provider Terminal” and entered 9-digit code.
 - i. Selected “Provider Directory”
 1. If you would like to search by service code, then select "Search by Service Code.”
 - a. Enter valid service code and a small popup window will provide you with the service code, service name associated with the code, and the fee for that service.
 2. If you would like to search by service Name “Search by Service Name”
 - a. Enter valid service Name and a small popup window will provide you with the service code associated with the service name, service name, and the fee for that service.
 3. Select “View All Services” if you need a list of all the services provided (Service Code, Service Name, Service Fee).
 4. Select “Main Menu” to return to the main menu.
 - ii. Selected “Log a Service”
 1. Enter the 9-digit Member ID, service code, Date of service, and any comments you wish to add.

- a. A pop-up will ask you to confirm if the service (service code, service name, and service fee) listed is correct.
 - i. If it is, select “yes” and a pop-up will tell you the service was successfully logged.
 - ii. If not, select “No” and enter correct information.
 - b. Select “Main Menu” to return to the Main Menu
 - c. Selected “Operator Terminal” and entered 9-digit code.
 - i. If you would like to Manage Member Records, select “Manage Member Records” and it gives you the options to Add member, Update Member, Delete Member, and exit.
 - 1. Choose which action you would like to take and enter the information it asks for you to answer.
 - a. If entered correctly a small pop-up window will let you know that the action you chose was completed successfully.
 - b. If you would like to exit, then select “exit”.
 - ii. If you would like to Manage Provider Records, select “Manage Provider Records” and it gives you the options to Add Provider, Update Provider, Delete Provider, and exit.
 - 1. Choose which action you would like to take and enter the information it asks for you to answer.
 - a. If entered correctly a small pop-up window will let you know that the action you chose was completed successfully.
 - b. If you would like to exit, then select “exit”.
 - iii. If you would like to backup data, then select “Backup Data.”
 - 1. A small pop-up window will tell you that the Data was backed up.
 - 2. Select “View Main Menu” to return to main menu.

Running The Tests

- 1. Select which file you would like to run.
 - a. If you want to run the entire file click “run -file name-“ at the top beside the file name
 - b. If you want to run a particular method, click the green play sign to the left of that method.